

Laparoscopic Duodenal Switch Course

October 13 - 14, 2017

Customized
Laparoscopic
Surgery Training
Available

Program Faculty

Dr. Mehran Anvari MB BS, PhD, FRCSC, FACS
Director, CMAS

Professor and Chair of Minimally Invasive Surgery and Surgical Innovation, Department of Surgery, McMaster University, Director of McMaster Institute of Surgical Invention and Education

Dr. Michel Gagner (Guest Faculty) MD, FRCSC, FACS, FASMBS

Professor of Surgery at Herbert Wertheim School of Medicine, FIU Department. Senior Consultant at Hôpital du Sacre Coeur, Montreal

Dr. Dennis Hong MD, MS.c, FRCSC, FACS

Associate Professor, Department of Surgery, McMaster University

Dr. Scott Gmora MD, FRCSC, FACS

Minimally Invasive Gastrointestinal and Bariatric Surgery, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Surgery, McMaster University

Location

St. Joseph's Healthcare Hamilton, Charlton Campus

Learning Objectives

By the end of the program registrants will:

- Identify indications for use of the dual and single anastomosis surgery.
- Apply proper techniques for both traditional duodenal switch and single anastomosis (SADI) surgeries.
- Recognize and solve complications arising from surgery.
- Support long term outcomes for their patients.

Early Bird Discount Available. Visit our website at:

www.cmas.ca/duodenal-switch

Centre for
Minimal Access Surgery
Hamilton, Ontario

St. Joseph's
Healthcare  Hamilton