

Resident Laparoscopic Hernia Course

Venue

St. Joseph's Healthcare
Campbell Auditorium | CMAS Skills Lab
50 Charlton Ave E , Hamilton, ON

Program Overview

- Techniques for laparoscopic ventral, incisional, parastomal and inguinal hernia repairs
- Discussion on open techniques for inguinal herniorrhaphy
- Update on all current prosthetic materials available for abdominal wall reconstructive surgery
- Hands-on training in the Skills lab with the lap trainers
- Safe and effective use of mesh

Program Director

Dr. M. Cadeddu

General Surgeon & CMAS Associate Director
St. Joseph's Healthcare, McMaster University
Hamilton, ON

Questions, please contact:

Lisa Hardie, CMAS Education Coordinator
905-522-1155 x35144

info@cmas.ca

AGENDA

Wednesday, November 29, 2017

Campbell Auditorium

- 9:00 am Registration & Continental Breakfast
9:15 am Welcome & Course Objectives - M. Cadeddu
9:30 am Talk: Ventral Prevention – X. Pare
9:45 am Talk: Ventral Hernia – Literature Review & Approach
M.Cadeddu
10:00 am Demo: Ethicon
10:15 am Talk: Complex Ventral Hernias – Difficult locations & Prior infected space, compromised skin - M.Cadeddu
10:30 am Talk: Inguinal Hernia & Femoral Hernia – Anatomy, Key Principles & Management – M.Cadeddu
10:45 am Talk: Parastomal Hernia - M.Cadeddu
11:00 am Lunch & Demo by Medtronic

CMAS Skills Lab

- 11:30 am Hands-on Practice in CMAS Skills Lab
1:30 pm Complete evaluations & wrap-up

ETHICON | Shaping the future of surgery
PART OF THE Johnson & Johnson FAMILY OF COMPANIES

Medtronic