

Femoroacetabular Impingement Course

May 13 - 14, 2016

Program Director

Dr. Olufemi Ayeni MD, MSc, FRCSC
Associate Professor, Orthopaedic Surgery
McMaster University

International Faculty

Dr. Nicolas Bonin MD
Dr. Asheesh Bedi MD

Location

McMaster University
Hamilton, Ontario

White Oaks Conference Centre
Niagara-on-the-Lake

Learning Objectives

By the end of the program registrants will:

- Have a comprehensive understanding of the diagnosis and treatment of FAI using latest evidence based principles and techniques.
- Familiarize themselves with strategies that enable the development of a clinical practice that involves the management of FAI patients.
- Develop an understanding of appropriate use of non operative interventions and strategies from allied health professionals.
- Develop and understand of how to evaluate a patient with FAI by interpreting clinical and radiological findings.
- Acquire an understanding of how to formulate a management plan for FAI and further their knowledge in hip arthroscopy and arthoscopic labral repair.

Register by April 15, 2016 on our website:

www.cmas.ca/fai-course

Centre for
Minimal Access Surgery
Hamilton, Ontario

St. Joseph's
Healthcare  Hamilton